

WE AGREE

disruptive house parties are not fun for anyone.

Everyone loves a great party, but nobody has fun when:

The party gets: out of hand,

Cars are parked on the lawn or blocking the street,

The party gets so loud that the neighbors can't sleep,

The lawn becomes both the garbage can
and the bathroom,

The hosts receive a large fine or jail time for disorderly house because their guests didn't follow the rules.

WE, the college students at Wayne State and Northeast agree with city officials and residents that wild parties hurt neighborhoods. We want to do our part in making things better for all of us.

Going to a party off-campus?

See other side.

OFF-CAMPUS PARTY? CONSIDER THIS:

The DISTURBING THE PEACE ORDINANCE prohibits anyone who shall disturb the public peace and quiet. You can be fined up to $500 upon conviction.

It is illegal to have an OPEN CONTAINER OF ALCOHOL in a motor vehicle. People carrying alcohol out of a party can be arrested if they get into their cars with an open container.

DRINKING ON PUBLIC PROPERTY ORDINANCE: It is illegal to consume alcohol on any public property; this includes streets, right-of-way and sidewalks. If your party spills outside you need to be aware of this ordinance.

The Nebraska Liquor Laws-Nebraska law prohibits persons under 21 years of age from possessing or consuming alcohol. If you attend a party, you and the resident/renter and owner of the house are responsible for underage drinking and can be charged with PROCURING ALCOHOL FOR MINORS or, if you charge admittance, SALE OF ALCOHOL WITHOUT A LICENSE. You could face fines of up to $500 and up to 30 days in jail for Procuring Alcohol for Minors.
